

Carolyn Harms from Derby Kansas was raised on a small family farm in Mitchell County and was active in the local 4-H program. She and her husband are still involved in the farming operation. Carolyn received her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from Kansas State University in May 1978. She began employment with The Boeing Company in Wichita Kansas in the fall of 1978 and spent 32 years in the aviation business working for Boeing and Spirit AeroSystems. Prior to her retirement in the fall of 2010, Carolyn was the Vice President/General Manager of the Aftermarket Customer Support Business Unit at Spirit AeroSystems. She was responsible for the development and leadership of a global aftermarket business for spare parts, maintenance, repair and overhaul (MRO) and product support services for products produced by Spirit AeroSystems.

Carolyn has always been an active participant in her community. She served as a Community Leader in the Derby 4-H club for over 15 years as well as being a member of the Sedgwick County 4-H and Youth Program Development Committee. She currently serves as Secretary of the Sedgwick County Extension Executive Board and has held the office of Chairman for 2 years. She is currently the Chair Elect of the State Extension Advisory Council. In addition, Carolyn serves on the Kansas 4-H Foundation Board of Trustees and the Kansas State University Board of Trustees.

Carolyn and her husband, Allan, are active participants in their church. They have two sons and a daughter, and enjoy participating in numerous family activities.
